

Poetry.

THE SOUTH.
BY AN ALABAMIAN.

"Land of the South! imperial land!
How proud thy mountains rise,
How sweet thy scenes on every hand,
How fair thy covering skies!
But not for this—oh, not for these
I love thy fields to roam;
Thou hast a dearer spell to me—
Thou art my native home!"

"Thy rivers roll their liquid wealth,
Unequaled, to the sea;
Thy hills and valleys bloom with health,
And green with verdure be;
But not for thy proud ocean streams,
Nor for thy azure dome,
Sweet Sunny South! I cling to thee,
Thou art my native home!"

"IT IS MORE BLESSED."

Give! as the morning that flows out of heaven;
Give! as the waves when their channel is given;
Give! as the free air and sunshine are given;
Lavishly, utterly, carelessly give.
Not the waste drops of thy cup overflowing,
Not the faint sparks of thy heart ever glowing,
Not a pale bud from the June rose's blowing;
Give as He gave thee, who gave thee to live!

Pour out thy love like the rush of the river
Washing its waters, forever and ever.
Thro' the burnt sands that reward not the giver.
Silent or sorrowful, though nearest the sea,
Scatter the life as the Summer shower's pouring!
What if no bird through the pearl rain is soaring?
What if no blossom looks upward adoring?
Look to the life that was lavished for thee!

Give, though thy heart may be wasted and weary,
Laid on an altar all ashes and dreary;
Though from its pulses a faint misereere
Beats to thy soul the sad presage of fate,
Bind it with cords of unshrinking devotion;
Smile at the song of its restless emotion!
Tis the stern hymn of eternity's ocean;
Hear! and in silence thy future await.

So the wild wind strews its perfumed caresses,
Evil and thankful the desert it blesses,
Bitter the wave that its soft pinion presses,
Never it ceases to whisper and sing.
What if the hard heart give thorns for thy roses?
What if on rocks thy tired bosom reposes?
Sweetest is music with minor keyed chords,
Fairest the vines that on ruin will cling.

Almost the day of thy giving is over;
Ere from the grass dies the bee-haunted clover,
Thou wilt have vanished from friend and from lover.
What shall thy longing avail in the grave?
Give as the heart gives whose fetters are breaking,
Life, love and hope, all thy dreams and thy waking,
Soon, heaven's river, thy soul fever sickening,
Thou shalt know God and the gift that he gave.

WHAT LITTLE CHILDREN GET AT SCHOOL.—A bevy of little children were telling their father what they got at school. The eldest got grammar, geography, arithmetic, etc. The next got reading, spelling, and definitions. "And what do you get, my little soldier?" said the father to a rosy cheeked little fellow, who was at that moment silly driving a ten-penny nail into a door panel. "Me?—oh, I get reading, spelling, and spanking."

In learning to love we, we but prepare to hate, as love goes by contraries. We are apt to overestimate evil as well as good.

Adam was not a perfect man; he had no recollections of boyhood. A satisfaction with home is happiness. A gloomy man is his own shadow.

A Grand Jury in Kentucky has indicted General Palmer and General Brisbane, for interfering with the slave laws of Kentucky, by abduction and otherwise.

TEACHER—"How many kind of axes are there?" Broad—axe, narrow axe, post axe, axe of the legislature, axing price, and axe of the Apostles." Teacher—"Good! go the head of your class."

Young people contemplating marriage should be careful not to make delusive impressions upon each other's mind. Do your courting in your everyday clothes, and without paint.

The Mobile Tribune calls for a Chamber of Commerce in that city. Something of the kind would certainly be useful in a city of 40,000 inhabitants.

WOMEN AND RIBS.—In the beginning, woman consisted of a single rib. Now she's all ribs, from her belt to the rim of her petticoats.

"Mamma," said a lad of six, "if a man is a Mister, is a woman a Mystery? We rather guess she is, sonny."

The Washington Star says two colored persons were at the White House one day last week, to solicit pardon for a former master.

The Long Island Railroad slaughter will be made a subject for the consideration of the next grand jury of Queens county, New York.

Twenty families in one of the wards of Boston have vowed to eat no butter until the price falls to thirty cents a pound.

Nearly every evil has its compensation. If a man has but one foot he never treads on his own toes.

A man who had stolen a watch gave an excuse that he was unwell, and his physician advised him to take something.

EVERGREEN NURSERIES,

Situated one Mile from the Court House,

CANTON, Miss.

THE undersigned have this day formed a copartnership under the style of T. J. DRANE & CO. for the purpose of carrying on the Nursery business in all its branches. It is the intention of the proprietors to propagate in the Fruit Department, choice varieties only, and such as are well adapted to the soil and climate of the South, ripening in succession over the fruit season. Consequently, purchasers will be positively protected against disappointment.

Every new variety of fine fruit shall be added to our catalogue, as soon as tested and proved to be suited to the climate.

All trees and plants will be carefully labeled and packed in the best manner for any part of the South, for which a moderate charge will be made; and no charge will be made for delivery of packages at the railroad.

It is requested that explicit directions be given for marking and shipping packages, but in all cases, when shipment is made the articles are at the risk of the purchaser.

All orders from unknown correspondents must be accompanied with a remittance, draft, or satisfactory reference.

Our customers are requested to notify us immediately of any error that may be committed in filling their orders, in order that we may at once make amends.

Catalogues will be forwarded to all who apply, post paid, and enclose a stamp to prepay the postage.
